Supervisor Demands Probe; Says Delinquent Lists Published Illegally

County Board Asked to Investigate Alleged Diversion of Funds

Investigation of alleged diversion of county funds to Sidney S. Moore and his associates in connection with the publication of certain delinquent tax lists is asked in a petition signed by three Lake county publishers and presented to the board of supervisors Tuesday afternoon by Russell Miller, board member from Shields township. Miller's comments on the petition which stated facts regarding what the publishers claimed to be illegal publication of delinquent tax lists in the townships of Wauconda, Avon, Lake Villa and Newport, were received in silence by the county board. "Facts too hot to handle," Miller said.

"Written Confession" A letter from the county treasurer on the stationery of the county treasurer, to a taxpayer of Avon township, was read by Supervisor Miller, as follows:

"Referring to your recent notation wish to advise that the assessment roll from Avon township has been published in the Lotus News."

"The Lotus News," said Miller, "is a legal publication for Grant township or any other township that has no legal publication. But it is NOT a legal publication for Avon township!"

Various newspapers that appeared identical except for the legal notices and places of publication were also shown as direct evidence because they all had the same name and volume-serial number.

Demands Immediate Action Continuing with his charges, Miller stated: "These publishers have told me they have taken this matter up with the State's Attorney and his assistants and have been able to get nowhere. I am here asking that a committee immediately take this up with the State's Attorney and if the evidence warrants, lay the facts before the grand jury."

Upon motion by Harold Pilliant, seconded by Miller, the matter was referred to the judiciary committee.

"Always Belittlin'" Commenting on the publisher's petition, the Wauconda News-Sun of October 12, thought it necessary to recall that Assistant Supervisor Miller "ran fourth in a field of four in the Republican primary race for county clerk." Readers are at a loss to understand just what connection that fact has with law infraction in Lake county.

Following is the petition of the publishers who are awaiting action by the judiciary committee:

October 10, 1938 To the Board of Supervisors, Lake County, Illinois.

Honorable Sirs: Your attention is respectfully directed to a claim against the County of Lake which is on file with the County Auditor for the sum of Thirty-eight Dollars ($38.00), which is claimed by Sidney S. Moore or K. K. Moore, pretending to be the publishers of a so-called "Wauconda Review," for the publication of the assessment tax list in Wauconda Township. This claim has been approved by Allen Nelson, the County Treasurer, and is to come before the Board of Supervisors for approval.

According to the law, such an assessment list is to be published in a newspaper printed and published in the said Wauconda Township. The said Sidney S. Moore or K. K. Moore do not publish a newspaper in Wauconda Township and they have no newspaper qualified under the law to print legal notices which are required to be published by a newspaper in that township.

Objection is made to the payment of any such claim by the County of Lake because the said assessment list was not published in a newspaper qualified by law to print legal notices. Attached to this objection you will find the signatures of ninety per cent (90%) of the residents and all of the merchants in the Village of Wauconda in which they certify that there is no such publication.

Your attention is further respectfully directed to the fact that the County Treasurer, Allen Nelson, and Sidney S. Moore have pulled this same trick in Avon Township, Lake Villa Township and Newport Township and that for these pretended publications in these townships large sums of the County's money have been allowed to Sidney S. Moore and his associates.

Your attention is further respectfully directed to the fact that on the 15th

COMMENCE SCHOOL HEALTH CHECK-UP

Examinations Reveal That 91 Local School Children Have Perfect Teeth

Ninety-one out of 176 pupils at the Antioch Graded school have perfect teeth, it was revealed as a result of dental examinations held there Tuesday and last Friday. Drs. L. J. Zimmerman and E. J. Lutterman were in charge of the examinations, which were sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association.

Physical examinations of pupils from the fourth to the eighth grade, inclusive, were begun yesterday afternoon and will continue through next week.

The eye, ear, nose and throat examinations, which were started yesterday and are to be continued on Oct. 19, are under the charge of Dr. Louis F. Waldman, Waukegan. The school physician, Dr. R. D. Williams, is in charge of the general physical examinations today and tomorrow.

Miss Elaine Warton, Lake county school nurse, is assisting in the work throughout the period.

day of September, 1938, the said Sidney S. Moore, through his son-in-law, C. F. Stahl, who then pretended to be the publisher of the Wauconda Review, printed the delinquent tax list, which is required by law to be published in a newspaper regularly published in Wauconda Township. The said newspaper is not a secular newspaper of general circulation, published in Wauconda Township, but is merely a reprint of the Lotus News published in Grant Township. That this same procedure has been followed by the said County Treasurer, Allen Nelson, and the said Sidney S. Moore in publishing delinquent tax lists in Avon Township, Lake Villa Township and Newport Township and by this device Sidney S. Moore has been able to obtain large sums of money from the County of Lake, contrary to the Statute in such case made and provided.

It is respectfully suggested that, because these lists have not been published according to law, that the County Court did not acquire jurisdiction to enter any order for the sale of taxes in those townships and the orders for sale of the delinquent taxes are null and void.

The undersigned respectfully request the Board of Supervisors to investigate this diversion of the county funds to Sidney S. Moore and his associates and to take such action as to the Board shall seem appropriate.

Respectfully submitted, Walter W. Banks, Publisher Wauconda Leader

New Crankless Phone System Put into Use

All week long, Antioch residents have been automatically reaching for the crank on their telephones in order to signal the operator—only to remember that since last Thursday afternoon the modern crankless system has been in use throughout the village.

The telephones had been arranged in advance so that with the opening of the new telephone office on Victoria street they could be switched over to the new system whereby the lifting of the receiver in itself signals the operator.

No longer does a series of phone calls embody some of the elements of a "settin' up" exercise. The old phone boxes—which have temporary attachments for their use at present—are gradually to be replaced by new ones.

But until then Antioch folks will no doubt absent-mindedly reach out for that crank, for the moment unmindful of the conveniences of an innovation which makes it no longer necessary to try and hold the phone book open at the right place, lift the receiver, and wind the crank all at the same time.

NEWS ITEM: National Debt Reaches New All Time High and Still Going Up.

CONFERENCE CHOICE PLEASES METHODISTS; REV. HENSLEE RETURNS

Pastor and Flock Gird for Year of Greater Service

Members of the Antioch Methodist parish were pleased to learn from announcements sent out following the annual Rock River conference last week that the Rev. Warren C. Henslee, who has guided the local church through a highly successful year, is to continue at his pastorate here for another 12 months.

The first pot luck supper-business meeting for this conference year was held last evening at 6:30 o'clock in the church, with an attendance of about 40 persons. The women of Friendship circle were in charge.

Parish Shows Advance Reports of the pastor and church officers last evening revealed that the past year has been an unusually successful one for the parish.

The church attendance has been more than doubled, with a 60 percent increase in the Sunday school. All financial obligations have been met, it was announced, and a debt of long standing has been cleared away.

The new conference year officially opened with the first of October, and plans for 12 months of greater success and increased service to the community were taken under consideration last evening.

New Pastors in County New appointments to Methodist pastorates in Lake county as announced at the Rock River conference include the following:

George T. Nesmith, Barrington; Joseph R. Boyle, Fox Lake; Russell V. Carr, Highland Park; Jesse E. Firestone, Ingleside; Loyal W. Sider, Rosecrans; Philip J. Alaimo, Winthrop Harbor; J. Andrew Fetzner, York House; Lawrence Burdette, Zion.

Attending the conference from here were Rev. Henslee as pastoral delegate and S. E. Pollock as lay delegate.

YEAR'S FIRE LOSS IN VILLAGE IS $28

Local Department Elects Officers Tuesday Night

Fire losses in the village of Antioch totaled only $28 during the past year, it was revealed by the secretary's report at the annual meeting held Tuesday night. Losses in the First Fire district were slightly over $2,800.

Officers of the association were re-elected, Laurel L. Powles again being chosen president; Clarence B. Shultis, secretary, and George Garland, treasurer. Selected as delegates to the 51st annual state firemen's convention at Peoria October 18-20, are Chief Stearns, R. F. Allner, and Edgar Simonsen.

Firemen were pleased with the report brought in by firemen who inspected business premises during Fire Prevention week.

COMMUNITY-WIDE RECREATION PLAN TO BE DISCUSSED

Project Similar to Those of Nearby Communities Is Considered

Reports on the possibilities of establishing a community recreation program in Antioch will be given at a meeting to be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 19, in the Graded school. The meeting, which is to be open to the public, will start at 8 o'clock.

The reports will be given by a committee consisting of F. O. Hawkins, Mrs. Elmer Hunter and H. H. Riechers, who have been appointed to investigate these possibilities.

The committee was chosen at a preliminary meeting Tuesday evening in the Graded school. Those present included R. E. Clabaugh, Robert Wilton, Otto Klass, R. H. Childers, Miss Ayleen Wilson, Mrs. Charles Lux, Mrs. Elmer Hunter, Mrs. H. H. Perry, Dr. R. D. Williams, Dr. D. N. Deering, Archie Mapletorpe, H. H. Riechers and Fred Hawkins.

Would Be Varied "The nature of a possible recreation program is as varied as a community wishes to make it," was the general opinion brought out in the discussions on the project. A year-round program was considered, to be adapted especially to adults during the winter months and to children and younger folks during the summer.

It would probably begin with handicraft classes of various types and similar activities. An individual to sponsor a photography club is already available, it was announced.

If carried through, the recreational program would be similar in type to those at Waukegan, Libertyville, Highland, Zion, Round Lake and Warren townships. Miss Madeline Millikan, county WPA recreational director, would assist with supervision and suggestions.

No Expense There would be no expense for supervision or instruction in the classes, it is planned. The only possible cost would be for materials which might be used in the classes.

All persons interested in community recreation will be welcome to attend the meeting next Wednesday, it is announced.

The committee report to be presented at that time will include the names of five persons to serve on a permanent sponsoring committee.

Legion Auxiliary Names Its District Delegates

A meeting of the American Legion auxiliary will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the American Legion hall.

Delegates and alternates who have been chosen by the unit as their representatives at district meetings have been announced as follows:

Delegates, Mmes. Carolyn Horan, Agnes Hills, Erna Powles, Sine Laurson and Helen Osmond; alternates, Mmes. Lydia Edwards, Alma Harden, Eva Kaye, Margaret Roof and Betty Mortenson.

The unit also has three district chairmen—Mrs. Ruth Ward, Poppy, Mrs. Ethyl Zimmerman, gold star, and Mrs. Mary Chase, education of World War orphans.

Citizenship Papers Are Granted 193 at Waukegan

Among the 193 new Americans who were granted citizenship papers and were honored with a reception last evening in the American Legion home at Waukegan were the following:

Fredia Yonp, Betty Katinka Mortensen, Agnes Emma Hills, Antioch.

Levi Peter Persson, James Alexander Chappell, George Eugene David, William Christian Poulsen, John Jodeman, Lake Villa.

Emma Eastman, Gurnee.

David Lees, Grayslake.

William Fred Keen, Torvald Bjorkvist, Libertyville.

Johan Fred Anderson, Sister Mary Briggita, Mundelein.

Ludwig Hutwif, Wadsworth.

Civic Club to Enjoy Pictures of Mexico

Pictures which he took on a trip to Mexico last summer, will be shown by John Reardon, secretary of the Waukegan school board, at a meeting of the Men's Civic club Monday evening.

The meeting will open with a 7 o'clock dinner, served by the Methodist Ladies' aid in the church dining room.

The Hobby Show—A Real Success

The "Hobby Show" sponsored by the Antioch Parent-Teacher association Monday evening in connection with its regular monthly meeting at the Graded school was an unqualified success in more than one sense.

Not only was there a whole-hearted response on the part of the general public—85 exhibits, ranging from those of children to those of adults—testified to the enthusiasm aroused—but the show itself was an educational experience to those who attended.

Hobbies of all sorts, covering a wide variety of skills and interests, were on display. The occasion afforded the visitor an ideal chance to study the interests of others and compare them with his or her own. In addition, many of the exhibits were in themselves an encouragement to the onlooker to branch out in other lines of fascinating spare-time recreation.

The Parent Teacher association is to be commended for sponsoring such a worthwhile enterprise, and for opening it to the public so that all who wished to take part were free to do so.

Foreign Propaganda

All any American citizen has to do is to look abroad at any country—Russia, Germany, Italy, or elsewhere—to know that we can do without their theories of government in this country. We want no regimentation of farmers, of industry, or of labor. We can do without dictatorships.

One of the most notable investigative jobs that is being done in this country, therefore, is that of the House Committee headed by Representative Dies of Texas. Charged with the investigation of "un-American activities," the Committee for the first time has spread publicly upon the records of Congress the extent to which the Communist Internationale has infiltrated into American patriotic, peace, organized labor, and political movements. It has shown how the Communists set up dummy organizations under high-sounding, patriotic names such as their "League for Peace and Democracy," to front for doctrines designed to overthrow the American Constitution.

Now the Dies committee is setting out to expose other alien propaganda espousing Nazism, Fascism, etc. It is hoped that Congress will provide the funds for the inquiry to go the whole way in developing the extent to which these foreign "isms" are being propagandized in this country.

The sentiments of all thoughtful Americans have been reflected by Charles R. Hook, President of the National Association of Manufacturers, who said in a letter to Representative Dies:

"Those who are behind such movements should be forced to stand before the public and receive the judgment of the people. If they are industrialists, doctors, teachers, ministers, or political dilettantes, let their names be registered in the official records of your committee."

Come Out of the Kitchen

Come out of the kitchen—into the bright fall weather!

The lake region is at its loveliest at this time of the year, with the myriad brilliant hues of autumn and the soft haze of on-coming Indian summer forming an ever-changing series of pictures.

The busy air of summer-time resort region activity at the lakes has given way to a quietness in harmony with nature, tempting motorists to follow beckoning highways and by-ways on a Saturday or Sunday, or of an early evening, while there is still enough light to enjoy the gorgeous coloring along the roadsides.

Added to the brilliant red of sumac, the deeper coloring of woodbine, the tawny hues of poplar and birch, and the yellow and red of the maples are the last lingering autumn flowers.

The poet Riley wrote that the autumn scene is "a picture that no painter has the color in to mock, when the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock."

With winter soon to wipe out all this glowing color, it behooves everyone in town or city who can do so to make the most of the remaining pleasant days of Indian summer by getting out into the great outdoors as soon as work is over.

Duck Hunting Opens

Good news to duck hunters is the word that waterfowl migration this season will be the largest in 10 years.

Throughout the lakes area the hunters are preparing to welcome the opening of the season on October 15. An added source for pleasure to them lies in the fact that the season has been extended 15 days through changes in federal regulations, and will last through November 28.

For many years the hunter's guns have been relatively silent because of a scarcity of ducks.

The activities of many conservation organizations in behalf of the preservation of wildfowl may perhaps be regarded as partly responsible for the increased supply of birds.

The Antioch Rod and Gun club has staunchly supported a program of conservation of game and other natural resources, and recently embarked on a project of increasing natural food supplies for wildfowl in the lakes region.

Poachers' nets, lack of food supplies and shelter in regions which have been wastefully despoiled, and other by-products of civilization are said to be more harmful to wildfowl than the hunter's gun. Sportsmen have more and more given their influence, time and effort, as well as more weighty contributions, to the conservation rather than the destruction of wild game, to keep it still one of America's great natural resources.

Obituary

Mrs. Frank Galiger, nee Catherine Weber, passed away at the Lake county hospital last Wednesday evening after a three months illness, only the last three weeks of which had she spent in the hospital. She was one of a family of eight children, and was born in McHenry, Ill., on August 4, 1880. When a young girl, she moved with her family to Lake county and this community has been her home ever since.

On Dec. 28, 1898, she was married to Frank L. Galiger and he, with six daughters, Mrs. Florence Nelson, Mrs. Ida Olson, Mrs. Julia Nicolai, Mrs. Mildred Van Buren, Mrs. Genevieve Rock and Miss Helen Galiger, all of Lake Villa, and three sons, Louis of Antioch, and John and Everett of Lake Villa, are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. She has six grandchildren, and also leaves three sisters and four brothers.

She joined the Royal Neighbor camp in Lake Villa during its early days and always enjoyed the meetings when it was possible for her to attend. The funeral was held from St. Peter's church in Antioch on Saturday morning, with burial in the Monksville cemetery. To the bereaved family the community extends its sympathy.

Atlanta Had Other Names

In 1821 the land which was the site of the founding of Atlanta was ceded by the Creek Indians to the state. The first cabin was built in 1833 and in 1836 engineers drove the stake which was to mark the end of the proposed state railroad. For that reason the town's first name was Terminus. In 1843 the name was changed to Marthasville in honor of the daughter of Governor Lumpkin. In 1847 it was incorporated as a city with the name of Atlanta, probably suggested by the railroad which was called the Western & Atlantic. It was made the capital of the state in 1868.

The Cause of Tides

Tides are caused by the gravitational attraction or pull of the sun and moon upon the water and upon the earth itself. The moon is the principal cause, says the Washington Star. When the moon is directly over a given place, it pulls up the water under it, thus tending to heap up a tidal wave. At the same time another heaping up of water occurs on the opposite side of the earth, producing a second tidal wave. At these points, it will be high water. The tides, therefore, may be looked upon as two great waves sweeping around the globe, their crests 180 degrees apart, their troughs at a varying distance, depending upon the position of the moon.

Small Island in the Pacific

Cocos island, on which, according to legend, pirate treasures are buried, is a small island in the Pacific ocean, off the coast of Colombia, and contains 16 square miles of lofty, forest-covered mountains and furrowed valleys. The republic of Costa Rica claims title to the island.

Lesson for October 16 REVERENCE FOR GOD

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:7; Matthew 5:33-37; 12:33-37.
GOLDEN TEXT—Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.—Matthew 6:9.

Character reveals itself through the words and deeds of a man. He may try to conceal his real spiritual condition and may assume an outward appearance of piety but he need not say many words, nor meet many of life's problems, before his true condition is revealed.

Our lesson for today touches primarily on the matter of the words of men, presenting first God's command that in speaking we are to show reverence for His name, and then leading up to the expression of that reverence in abstinence from swearing and from idle talk.

I. Reverence Commanded (Exod. 20:7).

The forbidden thing is the taking of the name of the Lord "in vain." Our use of the word "vain" carries the meaning of "useless, without purpose or meaning." This is part of what is in mind in this commandment, for the name of Jehovah is sacred and is to be revered as standing for the eternal God. It is never to be used carelessly, or for a frivolous purpose. All too often we tell jokes or stories which have no real purpose or meaning except to elicit a laugh and in them we use the name of God. We all need to exercise care at that point.

The Hebrew word, translated "vain" has the additional meaning of "evil" and "falsehood." Men are so bad that they may even use the name of God to support themselves in a lie. God hears and will in no wise hold them guiltless.

II. Swearing Forbidden (Matt. 5:33-37).

The Sermon on the Mount (so-called), from which this portion of Scripture is taken, is difficult to interpret to the satisfaction of all. Some disregard its evident application to the kingdom and, attempting to apply it in the midst of an ungodly generation, fall into such inconsistency that they abandon the effort and regard the teaching of the passage as impossible idealism. Others, who rightly interpret the passage as presenting the laws and principles of life in the kingdom of God when it shall be fully set up on earth with Jesus as King, fail to make any application of those principles to the life of those who are now living in this world—though not of it—but rather have their citizenship in heaven. This is also an unfortunate error.

We who follow the Lord Jesus are not to swear by either things sacred or things that might be called secular. Perhaps He has in mind that our lives should be so true that men will not need to have any kind of an oath to be assured of our sincerity and honesty. Some believe that all oaths even in court are forbidden, while others, with due respect for the feelings of those who hold this view, regard the taking of oaths in official matters as not being in mind. All would agree that the careless and almost sacrilegious use of God's name in administering oaths would be taking His name in vain.

Swearing is also entirely beyond the pale with Christian men and women. It is all too common with both men and women. A great church has organized a "Holy Name Society" to keep its members from using the name of the Lord in profanity. What a telling comment on the times in which we live!

III Judgment Assured (Matt. 12:33-37).

Jesus had cast out a demon who had possessed a man and made him blind and dumb. The Pharisees could not deny the miracle but attributed it to the power of Beelzebub, prince of the demons. Jesus closed their mouths by pointing out that Satan did not work against himself, and went on to speak solemn words regarding their and our responsibility for what we say.

A day of judgment is coming, when we shall answer for the idle and wicked words which we speak. While we would not bring condemnation upon those who indulge in the innocent pleasures of life by making too severe an application of these words, neither should we destroy their evident import by failing to apply them to our daily conversation. One need but listen to the casual small talk of men and women in public places to realize that we need to give attention to the matter of elevating not only the conversation of others but our own as well to a nobler and more helpful level. Surely Christians should speak for the glory of God on every occasion and in each circumstance of life.

The way to accomplish this worthy purpose, and the only way, is to have the heart and life filled with the good treasure of God's Word, for verily out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. What do your words and mine indicate to others regarding what is in our hearts?

Nathanael Greene Proved Himself a Great General

Gen. Nathanael Greene, born in 1742 in Rhode Island of Quaker parents, rejected the strict principles of that sect, became a soldier and commanded the American forces in the South during the Revolutionary war, recalls Leslie Hartley in the Washington Star.

Greene proved himself a great general when Washington placed him in command of the southern troops. By successful military maneuvers against the British in 1781 he won the battle of Eutaw Springs, a decisive conflict in South Carolina. In little more than a year he had Georgia and the Carolinas free of British control.

In appreciation of his services at Eutaw Springs, congress presented him with a medal and the two Carolinas and Georgia made him valuable grants of property. Also, congress later voted to "raise a monument at the seat of government" in his honor, a monument which was not erected until 90 years later. Another monument dedicated jointly to General Greene and Count Pulaski stands in a public square in Savannah, Ga.

In 1785 Greene moved to the plantation of Mulberry Grove on the Savannah river, where he lived until, at the age of 44, he died of a sunstroke.

The Ninety-ninth session of the Rock River conference came to its close Sunday evening with the reading of the appointments of its more than three hundred effective members. Bishop Titus Lowe of the Portland (Ore.) area gave the final address on the subject "Alders Gate and World Regeneration." The Rev. Warren C. Henslee was returned to Antioch for another year.

Last year was one of more than usual success. Numerically and spiritually there was a decided advance. Attendance more than doubled. A debt of long-standing was paid. And all financial obligations, including the pastor's salary were paid in full. For all these blessings we give thanks to our Heavenly Father.

A new year is before us. The past should be but a stepping stone to greater achievements. May our ideals be higher, our courage greater, our vision broader, and our faith stronger than at any time in the past. Our watchword should be "Onward and Upward."

JR. CLASS GETTING READY FOR "CIRCUS"

Romance of "Big Top" to Be
Re-created by H. School
Play Oct. 27-28

The heart and soul of the circus! Life under the Big Top! Romance! Pink lemonade! Calliope playing! A fairyland of spangles and bangles. Elephants, tigers, bears—They'll all be here on October 27 and 28 when "The Circus Comes to Town," at Antioch Township High School.

The members of the Junior class are working day and night to put over the biggest show this town ever had the good fortune to see. The stage crew, captained by Richard Prince, Gordon DeBoer and Otto Gussarson, are kept busy finding enough paddles for the clowns to get slapped with and the clowns, Carl Wurster, Bill Thompson, Billy Teichert, Ray Baethke, Gordon Pierce and George Winfield are rehearsing their stunts. The publicity committee—Robert Behler, Francis Swenson, Maynard Schneider, James Atwood, Robert Effering, Edward Knickelbein, William Peterson, with Otto Palaske as chairman are canvassing the country for miles around.

The gypsies will also be there that night to see that you are seated comfortably and to take care of you between acts—Ann Nelson, Helene Henry, Billie Mae Lightsey, Evelyn Craft, Betty Weber, Bessie Leng, Carol Truax and Eleanor Behning are true Romany lassies. The all-important business committee is being piloted by Lois Bonner with the help of Lila Dalgaard, Hazel Dowell and Lotus Crawford.

The costumes—and what would a circus be without the gay colored clothes of the ring?—are being handled by Dorothy Jacobsen, Doris Schnieder and Charlotte Nash.

The sound crew are all set to go, and if you don't believe you have been to a real circus when you leave the high school building those nights of October 27 and 28, then you were never a little boy who carried water for the elephants or a little girl that spilled pink lemonade on her Sunday dress.

DRIVERS LICENSES ARE AVAILABLE NOW

Applications May Be Made at Local Agencies by Antioch Residents

Applications for Drivers' Licenses were made available to Illinois motorists Monday in the offices of county and city clerks, notaries public, police stations, newspapers, and motor clubs, throughout the state according to announcement of Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes.

Locally the applications may be procured at the office of the village clerk, police magistrate, or any notary who has already received a supply.

In announcing the release of the applications Secretary Hughes urged car operators to apply immediately and avoid the rush of the automobile licensing season to get under the deadline on drivers licensing, May 1, 1939.

"A conservative estimate puts the figure of operators who must be licensed to drive by May 1, 1939 at 2,500,000. Public co-operation is needed to insure completion of licensing by that date," says Secretary Hughes.

"Get your blank fill it out carefully, have your signature witnessed, make out a check or money order for 50 cents, if you are beyond the age of 18 years, 25 cents if you are below that age, and send it with your application to the Automobile Department, Capitol, Springfield. This will license you as a driver until May 1, 1942.

"No examination is necessary, except in special cases, for a person who is now operating a car. No examination will be necessary prior to May 1, 1939.

"The application blank carries a space for a photograph one by one and a half inches. You are not in any way compelled to attach your photograph to the application. If a picture is attached, the inexpensive passport type is the sort required, it will be photostated on the driver's license identification card."

"The card is a good means of identification and also serves the important function of being acceptable in lieu of a bail bond in traffic court. Early application does not cut down on the life of the license of three years starting May 1, 1939 and extending to May 1, 1942."

NORMAN PRICE COMPLETES A&P ANNIVERSARY PICTURE

Famed for his beautiful and authentic historical illustrations, artist Norman Price was recently commissioned by The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company to create the "A&P picture" for the 70th Anniversary Celebration of its A&P Food Stores which takes place during the month of October.

Mr. Price's painting, now completed, faithfully portrays a waterfront scene typical of the year 1869—the year of

A&P's beginning in a little shop in Vesey Street of Old New York. It was in the early fall of 1869 that a high-masted sailing vessel carried to America's shores A&P's first stock in trade, a cargo of Canton teas brought from half way around the world. A&P began its business with that clipper ship cargo of tea.

In creating his A&P Anniversary "theme picture," Norman Price's skillful artistry of pen and brush was supplemented by a comprehensive, intimate knowledge of the subject. He spent many hours in research before the first line of the picture was drawn. Even after the composition was well worked out and the details carefully sketched, Mr. Price had an old sailor who had spent years "before the mast" check all details of the construction of the clipper ship and its rigging, so that every line would be technically accurate.

Perhaps you may have some valuable stamps on old letters or envelopes hidden away in some old desk or box. Up in the attic you may have a trunk with letters or envelopes containing stamps. I will pay you spot cash for any I can use. Even stamps on letters not ten years old bring big money.

Get them together, and send to me, or write what you have. Don't remove stamps from envelopes. I will make you a cash price for them.

THEO. B. SMITH TAKEN BY DEATH

Resident of Antioch Since
Last May Dies Suddenly
Sunday Night

Theodore B. Smith, 52, died at his home here Sunday evening, Oct. 9, at 11:30 o'clock. Although he had been in poor health for some time, his death was unexpected and came as a severe shock to the members of his family and friends.

Mr. Smith was born in Chicago Feb. 19, 1886, the son of Mrs. Elizabeth B. Smith, now of Antioch, and the late Edward T. Smith.

He is survived by his mother; by a sister, Mrs. Rhona H. Ball of Antioch, with whom he made his home; and by two nephews, Robert H. Ball of Antioch and Theodore W. Ball of Oak Park.

Until illness forced his retirement about a year ago, Mr. Smith was for 20 years employed as sales representative of a well known paint manufacturing concern. He had been a resident of Antioch since last May, having made his home in Oak Park for 22 years previously.

Death was attributed to a paralytic stroke. Mr. Smith had suffered two previous attacks, the first about a year ago and another last April, but

Origin of 'Hobson's Choice'

The phrase "Hobson's choice" owes its origin to Thomas Hobson, an old carrier and livery stable keeper, who plied between Cambridge and London in the Seventeenth century. When a man came to Hobson's stable for a horse, he found that he was obliged to take the one nearest to the stable door. In this way the carrier considered that he was serving each of his clients impartially.

We are trying to start a rhythm band in our room. We have made tom-toms and some of them are of several different colors.

We have divided our border up among the girls, the boys and the fourth graders. The girls of the fifth and sixth grade are making one by themselves, the boys of these two grades, and the fourth grade pupils are making one of their own.

Mr. Brickman changed the dirt in the flower stand and Chuckie planted the flowers. They look very nice. Miss Dexter brought them for us.

The Brownies are dancing among the little shocks of corn on our sand table while the old witch is busy brewing something for Halloween in the old iron cauldron Mr. Brickman made.

He also made miniature pumpkins to put here and there in our corn field. The children surely enjoy the many things Mr. Brickman makes for them.

We wish to invite any of the parents who didn't find time to visit our room last week to visit us any time that is more convenient for them.

The P. T. A. will hold a meeting at the school-house next Monday evening and the public is invited. The program committee has secured the services of Mrs. Petty of Antioch who will give a book review.

Fur-Sleeved Coat

Fashion dictates fur sleeves for winter cloth coats. They are being shown in endless number and the furs employed are apt to be of any type which, of course, adds zest to the mode. In this instance lavish silver fox is employed. Special points of styling interest in the mode pictured is the multiple skirt pleats and the wide crushed leather belt.

Hindus First Settlers of Java
The original inhabitants and settlers of Java were Hindus who seem to have first visited the island about 75 A. D. Dutch rule in the island began in 1610 and there was a brief rule by the French and later by the British. The Dutch resumed possession in 1817. The island is about 49,000 square miles. From end to end of the island there is a mountain chain, and on the western part of the island there are several parallel, shorter chains. To the north there are a few isolated mountains. There are 43 volcanoes. The population is divided into Europeans, natives (Malays) and foreign Orientals (Chinese and Arabs).

The Gettysburg Address
When Lincoln finished making his immortal Gettysburg address the noted men on the platform, even Lincoln himself, were all of the opinion the speech was a failure. For several days the leading New York papers praised Everett's oration, spoke well of the speech made by Beecher, but of Lincoln's now immortal address most of the papers did not even mention it editorially.

Springs Flow at Night
Some springs flow only at night. These usually are in the woods. This is because, according to an authority, the ground water has two outlets, one by seepage and velvike drainage to springs, and the other through evaporation from the myriads of leaves overhead. Evaporation is least at night. Hence seepage is greatest.

THIS popular idea of advertising is that it consists chiefly in the writing of advertisements. More important than the preparation of copy, however, is the ability to understand the prospective customer's wants so as to know how the most effective sales appeal may be made.

All of us are engaged in some form of selling every day. Perhaps you need do nothing more than sell yourself. When all is said and done, successful selling depends largely upon each man's individual ability to adapt himself to the peculiar circumstances of each situation and to handle with skill the numerous details that enter into the sale. This requires the use of observation, diplomacy, persistence, patience and a full knowledge of the commodity one is selling. Of course, there can be no hard and fast rules for conducting interviews with an almost endless variety of human beings. The salesman, like the military general, must plan his campaign with all the resourcefulness at his command.

Enthusiasm is the spark in the salesman's personality. It is the glow of sincerity that radiates naturally from the face of the salesman who believes in himself and his ability to sell; who believes in the merits of his product and the company back of it; and who believes in the profession of selling as one that is worthy of his best efforts.

Cliff Dwellings in Colorado

In Mesa Verde National park, there are several cliff dwellings that have been dated accurately by tree-ring chronology. In Spruce Tree House are roof beams constructed between the years 1230 and 1274 A. D. The Cliff palace was built between 1073 and 1273. The cave in which Cliff palace, the largest of all cliff dwellings, is situated was occupied originally in the First century B. C. or A. D. The Pueblo culture on Mesa Verde, which began to develop at that time, reached its classical stage about the Tenth century. The Basket Makers, as the earliest cliff dwellers are called, were the first agricultural Indians of the Southwest.

Plaids, Stripes and Prints
Radiant With Fall Colors

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

AN EPIDEMIC of plaids is gripping the entire fashion world. It matters not whether you are a grown-up or a juvenile, or a junior or a between-age, you will never be able to remain immune to the wiles and winning ways of the gorgeous plaids that have come out in such brilliant array at the dawn of this new fall season. For that matter you who want to if they could resist the witchery of anything so intriguing as are the new plaids. So if you would be fashion-wise enter into the spirit of the current mode and "go in" for plaids with a will.

It certainly is an exciting story that the new plaids are telling. The plot carries on and on in endless variety via costume suits that are smartly tailored of glorified plaids and as to the separate skirts that are fashioned of plaid you couldn't keep count of their vast number if you tried. Then there are the cunning flattering shirtmaker dresses, the skirts of which radiate tucks or pleats from a slim waistline. Almost invariably the sleeves of these youthful frocks are short in defiance of most fashion reports that forecast "long sleeves for fall and winter."

The separate plaid jacket that is tailored to a nicety is also an important item and as for the plaid blouse, it's the rage whether in fine wool weave, or a synthetic material such as rayon or it may be of taffeta. Nor does the present plaid craze stop at the costume proper, but it carries on full force into the accessory area.

With your sweater and plaid skirt if you play the game of fashion as it should be played on campus and in spectator sports-womanhood at the gridiron series, you'll see to it that your costume is completed with a jaunty cap and bag of matching plaid.

In the illustration we are showing a plaid, a stripe and a gay print school-girl model. These fetching fashions had their initial showing of a preview showing of fall styles recently presented at the Merchandise Mart in Chicago.

Off to school is the young miss to the left in a clever Scotch costume. The skirt is a red and black plaid, with a matching Scotch cap and purse. The sweater is also red.

"The Barber of Seville" is the appropriate name given to the gaily striped wool afternoon dress centered in the picture. The skirt is pleated and the new longer-than-formerly-shown jacket is striped in jungle green and dregs of wine (much exploited color this season). A green ascot tie completes the dress.

The peasant dress still dominates in dresses for the young for fall, as the model illustrated to the right portrays. The dress is navy blue broadcloth with splashy yellow and red flowers, over which is worn a brilliant front-laced peasant bodice. The Scotch plaid dress pictured in the inset below is typical of present-day trends in wear-to-school fashions.

Bi-Color Suede

Suede gains in style importance. Now that this supple beautifully colorful medium is being worked just like fabric, the fashion-minded are calling for it increasingly each season. Here, as pictured, an on-trend orange suede jacket is worn by Gloria Stuart in cinema renown, over a simple one-piece dress of paradise blue suede. Short sleeves and a sailor collar give the frock a youthful look. The blue suede cap is ideal for informal knockabout wear.

Autumn Costumes
Favor Boxy Coats

Although the edict of finger-tip length jackets is general for first autumn suits, several French designers are defying this rule by introducing short, boxy ones to wear with contrasting dresses.

One of these brief coats is little more than waistline length and flares in all directions. Its roomy shoulder line and wide sleeves contribute to the carefree impression. Some striking color combinations are achieved with these jackets of light weight wool worn over wool dresses. Since mauve and violet tones continue to be popular they are being used extensively, often in alliance with blue or dark red.

The suit which has a jacket resembling an overblouse or a brief tunic is the one which designers regard with favor and which looks so much like a dress that it may be worn during cold weather under a fur coat.

Place for Watch

The new place for the watch, instead of hanging as a pendant on the tulleur lapel, is with the vanity and cigarette case, according to Lancel, stylist. The case comes in different shades of enamel and gold and silver, modeled in an oblong.

New Bonnets Appear

Little lingerie baby bonnets, often with a sophisticated nose veil, are the latest millinery conceit. They are not worn as dinner or evening hats, but to complete day costumes.

Monogram shoes are the latest attention to the "personality" fads that increase in popularity with the seasons.

FARM TOPICS

SHOULD BE READY
FOR THE HARVESTHave Equipment in Repair
To Handle Fruit Crop.

By M. B. Hoffman, New York State College of Agriculture, WNYU Service

Harvest time is a busy time for the fruit grower. He has to estimate the crop, plan for dependable pickers, and have on hand the needed supply of baskets, boxes, pads, nails, liners, and similar equipment.

Everything included in the equipment of harvesting and packing should be in good repair ahead of time. Ruts and rough places in the orchard roadways should be repaired to prevent bruising the fruit when it is hauled from the orchard.

The right kind of picking ladder is a big satisfaction. For poaches, prunes, and small apple and pear trees, the stepladder is desirable. A stepladder, wide at the base, narrowing toward the top and with a single leg for support, is the easiest to place among the branches.

For mature apple trees, the rung ladder with a wide base and coming to a point at the top is the most satisfactory. The larger ladders should be made of light wood. Basswood makes an excellent ladder.

The type of containers used in handling fruit has a great influence on the amount and severity of bruising. In general, picking containers with rigid walls cause the least bruising.

Males for Next Season
Should Be Chosen Early

If one desires to hatch one's own eggs next year, now is the time to select the cockerels that will be needed, says a writer in the Missouri Farmer. As the chicks grow, the topnotchers of the flock begin to show up. They force ahead of their fellows, and plainly indicate that they possess more vigor, faster growing and feathering qualities than their brothers. These are the ones to mark for breeding purposes.

Out of a hundred males there will be a half dozen or so of these topnotchers. These should be kept throughout the summer and then next fall culled again, since several of them will fail to maintain the pace set by the leaders. A few more than will be needed for the matings next year should be kept, since one or two might die in the interim. In selecting cockerels for breeding purposes, vigor is the all-important consideration. Lacking this quality, a male is worthless because his offspring will be unsatisfactory.

Weedy Milk

From the standpoint of herd management there are two things that can be done to prevent weedy-flavored cream. One is to keep the cows off the weedy pasture for from three to five hours before milking. That may in some cases mean that the cows will have to be taken off the weedy pasture at noon and in the evening before retiring for the night, during the time that the weeds are at their worst stage, says Hoards' Dairyman. The second way to avoid weedy cream is to provide the cows enough good food so they will not be forced to eat weeds. When cows have access to a good pasture, they will usually leave the weeds alone. If the pasture is short it should be supplemented with hay, grain, stlage, or green feed. A combination of these two methods is excellent. Turn the cows on the weedy pasture after milking but transfer them to a good pasture or to a yard where they have access to other feed three or four hours before milking.

Cross-Breeding

For many years American poultrymen have, by crossing different breeds, produced chicks that show sex differences by the different colors of the males and females. Rhode Island Red males, for example, crossed with Barred Rock hens produce black female chicks with black shanks. The males, also black, have yellow shanks and a white spot on the head. Another example of cross-breeding for sex determination of chicks is the crossing of rapid-feathering Single-Comb White Leghorns with slow-feathering Single-Comb White Leghorns. The male chicks have small primary wing feathers. Females hatch with larger primary wing feathers. Cross-breeding has its limitations, however. Two breeding lines must be maintained. Generally the poultryman wants but one breed.

Agricultural Extension

The United States stands ahead of most other countries in agricultural extension, or the education of farmers on the land, according to Prof. Bristow Adams, of the New York State college of agriculture. Professor Adams, who recently returned from a world tour, studied the methods employed in the more progressive countries south of the equator. Greatest progress, he said, is now being made in Australia and New Zealand.

ARBUCKLE, CALIF. — An eight-pound girl baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young Jr. was the first girl to be born in the Young family for five generations.

MAN LIKES TO SING,
GIVES UP BUSINESSExecutive Gambles on Success
As an Opera Singer.

MILAN, ITALY. — Would you toss away a $50,000-a-year advertising business, pawn about everything you have—and gamble on success as an opera singer just because you like to sing?

Joseph J. Tissier, thirty-one, an up and coming San Franciscan, did. He did more than that. He changed from a baritone to a tenor.

And it is as a tenor that the handsome advertising executive has waded up several rungs toward his goal of becoming the newest star of the Metropolitan opera.

Tissier and his bride, the daughter of Presiding Judge Louis Ward of San Francisco, now live in an attic here, where he sings three to four hours a day. He'll make his debut in northern Italy this summer.

While working for a national radio chain on the Pacific coast as a continuity writer, Tissier often sang professionally. But always as a baritone.

In the summer of 1935 he sang before Gaetano Merola, maestro of the San Francisco Opera company.

"Well," Merola told him, "you're nothing spectacular as a baritone but you would make a fine tenor. I think you should have been a tenor."

"All right," Tissier said, "I will be."

At about the same time he opened an advertising agency in San Francisco and last fall he had learned ten complete tenor operatic roles. He went to Merola again.

"I'm a tenor now," he announced. "What'll I do with it?"

Merola said: "You have a business. It takes up too much of your time. If you can, give up your business."

Tissier took the advice and came to Italy, mainly to perfect his Italian and "because it is a lot of fun living here."

Ex-Count Finds Pleasure

In Trimming U. S. Hedges

PITTSBURGH.—Fritz Bernstorff, thirty-one years old, a Danish count by birth, whose great-grandfather freed the farmers of Denmark from peonage, feels that he has finally found a congenial job in America. He's the gardener at an Oakmont home.

Bernstorff came to America in 1931 and to Oakmont last May.

While in this country he has been employed as a steel worker and as a salesman for an engraving concern in Eastern cities.

With his wife Hedwig, an American girl of Norwegian ancestry, and their sixteen-month-old son, Fritz Jr., the former count lives in modest quarters above a residential garage in the Oakmont district.

Bernstorff doesn't look upon his job of trimming hedges and digging in the soil for a living as a menial task. He recalls the work of his ancestors in behalf of down-trodden farm tenants in Denmark many years ago. That was before the World war stripped the family of most of its money and prestige. Furthermore, Bernstorff points with pride to his own training as a horticulturist during the days of pre-war Europe.

Only in the kindly reception given him upon his arrival in America did the count find his major problem. He came to this country with introductions to several prominent New York families.

"They were all very nice," he relates, "but I couldn't accept their hospitality one day and ask them for a job the next."

Guinea Rooster Cares for

Two Birds of Dead Mates

RICHLAND CENTER, WIS.—Mrs. Victoria Kinyon's guinea rooster knows all the woes of marital life—he's been a widower twice.

Last year Mrs. Kinyon's guinea hen hatched 10 chicks. The hen was killed, but the rooster took over her task of raising the brood.

This year Mrs. Kinyon got another mate for her rooster. The hen laid a nest of eggs and began hatching them.

In the midst of her setting, she was killed when she ran into the path of an automobile.

The rooster again took over duties on the nest.

Dr. Grim, Druce's Lake, Noted Specialist, Dies

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the first Congregational church of Waukegan for Dr. Ulysses Joshua Grim, Druce's lake, who died last Saturday morning at St. Therese's hospital. Death was attributed to heart disease. Dr. Grim, who was 72 years of age, was one of the country's outstanding specialists in the treatment of eye, ear and throat troubles.

He was born in Allentown, Pa., on Nov. 22, 1865, and came to live in Illinois when he was 11 years of age. He was graduated from Rush Medical college in 1891 and went to Vienna for post graduate study.

From 1913 to 1937 he was a professor of eye, ear and throat instruction in the medical college at Loyola university, and was also head of a department at Mercy hospital. In recent years he maintained an office in the Medical Arts building in Waukegan.

He is survived by his widow, Juanita Alice Foerster Grim, and a daughter, Alice Donohue of Highland Park; also by a sister in California and another in Galesburg, Ill.

Burial was in Warren cemetery.

Many From Here Visit Festival At Waukegan

Many Antioch region residents were among the thousands of visitors from every corner of the County which thronged the grounds of the Lake County Agricultural and Industrial exposition last Saturday, the final day of the week's festival program, at Waukegan.

Approximately 750 awards were made in the agricultural division, prizes going to farmers, farmers' wives and 4-H club boys and girls residing in every community of the county.

One of the most interesting features of the week's activities was the selection of two queens for the festival. Miss Lilian Atwell of Lake Villa won the contest for County queen, which carried with it as a prize a $150 fur coat. Miss Dorothy Innan of Waukegan was selected Festival queen and with her election went an automobile. Coronation ceremonies for the two reigning ladies were held at the Fair grounds on Wednesday night before a cheering crowd of visitors.

Besides the thousands of agricultural and industrial exhibits, the evening horse shows proved very popular with the visiting crowds. A thrilling feature of these exhibitions was the polo games between the Junior teams of boys and girls sponsored by J. J. Casey.

St. Paul a Roman Citizen
St. Paul the Apostle, formerly Saul of Tarsus, came of an Aramaic-speaking family. He was a Roman citizen. Long after his conversion he retained a certain pride in his Jewish birth and a great affection for his own people. Though born outside Palestine, he was brought up, not as a Greek-speaking Jew or Hellenist, but as a Hebrew. This last denotes a difference of language and manners. Accordingly, he spoke Aramaic fluently.
